Pro Disposal & Recycling is ‘Best Large Business’

Award from chamber recognizes commitment to excellence

HENDERSON, Colo. (Feb. 4 2019) – Pro Disposal & Recycling, one of the largest residential waste and recycling haulers in the Denver area, has received recognition from the Chamber of Northwest Douglas County as this year’s “Best Large Business.”

The award goes to the company that has more than 50 employees and that best exemplifies the Chamber’s commitment to the highest integrity in business practices. Pro Disposal & Recycling accepted the award recently at the Chamber’s annual luncheon in Lone Tree.

“Of all the awards we have won in recent years, none means more to us than this one from the Chamber, because it comes from a group of savvy business people who know Pro Disposal & Recycling better than anyone,” said Rick DePaiva, district manager of Pro Disposal & Recycling. “We interact regularly, and many of them are Pro Disposal & Recycling customers, so they know the true extent of our commitment to customer service, business ethics and community involvement.”

Pro Disposal & Recycling has been a Chamber member for eight years. The company operates in 14 cities around the Denver metro area, but it has a concentration of business in the area served by the Chamber, including service that Pro Disposal & Recycling provides for the official operations of Douglas County administrators.

“Pro Disposal & Recycling is always on the forefront of the Chamber’s efforts to unite the hundreds of businesses and transform that unity into a dependable resource for everyone,” said Tim Lindsey, owner of Bear Mortgage and chairman of the Chamber Board of Directors. “We are happy to recognize Pro Disposal & Recycling with this award.”

About Pro Disposal & Recycling
